Book of the week

Singing

The children have done very well learning Christmas songs. Last week we learnt 'The telephone song'

Maths this week - Measure

We will continue looking at the measure aspect of the maths curriculum by using maths language to describe weight

Heavy Light

Crafts

This week we will be completing a variety of crafts that will support the children's fine motor control, speaking skills and understanding. We will make a peg angel and elf ourselves.

Decorations

Along with the other crafts the children will also make a slat dough handprint decoration this week.
